

THE BURNING OF ROCKLAND

Mr. Thomas Atkinson's Splendid Summer Home Destroyed.

WILL REBUILD AT ONCE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GORDONSVILLE, VA., Feb. 20.—"Rockland," the beautiful country home of Mr. Thomas Atkinson, a prominent capitalist and tobaccoist of Richmond, was totally destroyed by fire Sunday morning about 2 o'clock. How the fire originated is not known, but it is thought was caused by an engine in the building, which was undergoing repairs to prevent plastering from freezing. Another theory is that it was caused by rats, a lot of match boxes and trash being found between a partition.

"Rockland" was purchased by Mr. Atkinson a few years ago, who has since spent many thousands of dollars in improvements on the place. The main building was worth about $15,000, and he was adding another building to it at a cost of $10,000, both of which together, with the furniture, were entirely consumed.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Part of the building at the time of the fire was occupied by a man who was making the improvements. They awoke to find the house in flames, and made narrow escapes, losing all of their tools. This was one of the finest and handsomest estates in this section of Virginia.

Mr. Atkinson and family were in Richmond at the time. Mr. Fletcher, the foreman, went to Richmond early Sunday morning to notify Mr. Atkinson of his loss, returning the same evening with information that Mr. Atkinson would arrive here Wednesday in company with an architect to draw plans for another more modern and handsome building, which will be begun at an early date.

Mr. Atkinson's loss is estimated at $25,000, and his insurance, it is understood, is $15,000.

FINE OLD PLACE.

"Rockland" is one of the best known country places in Virginia, and one of the handsomest in Orange county, which is noted for its handsome country homes. Mr. Atkinson had lately determined to make extensive improvements to his house, and, in fact, the additions had about been completed when the fire took place.

Workmen had had possession of the house for some months, and it only remained to paper the rooms to complete the improvement. It is said that $20,000 had been expended.

On Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock the house was being lived in by the workmen. They were granted a holiday. They stated that they were careful to put out all fires within the dwelling, and to go all over the house before leaving.

The workmen lived in an old house a short distance from the main dwelling. Shortly after midnight the men were awakened by a great glow, and rushed out to find the house in flames. The out-house, in which they were sleeping, caught fire and was burnt to the ground as well as "Rockland" house proper.

FIRE BUGS.

It is believed that the fire is the work of "firebugs," for within the last few days, Mr. McCormick's residence and Mr. Clay's stable have been burnt, as well as "Rockland." All of these places are close together.

Mr. Atkinson is in New York, where he hastened to see Mr. Irving, owner of "Frascati," a handsome country place, situated about two miles from "Rockland," on the Somerset Road. It is Mr. Atkinson's purpose to lease "Frascati" until he can rebuild "Rockland."

Mr. Egbert Leigh, of the addition, had the refusal of the building, but upon learning of Mr. Atkinson's misfortune, hastened to offer him the use of the near-by county seat.

A FINE ESTATE.

"Rockland" is the estate next to "Cameron Lodge," owned by Colonel Alexander Cameron, of this city. It commands a grand view of the mountain and is one of the show places of the State.

Mr. Atkinson has given great attention to the breeding of horses, and has put together a fine lot of brood mares, and will breed stables. Several of his thoroughbred colts have now good races on the turf.

THIRTY THOUSAND FIRE.

The Virginia Glass Works, at Alexandria, Burn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Feb. 20.—The main building of the Virginia Glass Company's plant in West End, near this city, was destroyed by fire Saturday evening with a loss of about $30,000, partly covered by insurance.

John S. Bordiner, of Richmond, is president. The fire puts hundreds of employees out of work.

WHAT THE MINISTER SAYS

Is Most Convincing.

"I thought I would write you what Pyramid Pills have done for me. I had a most aggravated case of bleeding piles; indeed, I dreaded when I had to go to stool. One fifty-cent box cured me. I feel like a new man. I have recommended it to others as being the most wonderful remedy known. It is indeed a great blessing to suffering humanity. You are at liberty to use this for all it is worth, and I hope it may do good." Rev. W. E. Carr, 355 N. Holbrook Street, Danville, Va.

Clergymen like all professional men who lead sedentary lives are especially afflicted to piles in various forms, and are continually on the lookout for a remedy which will give relief, with little or no idea of obtaining a cure.

Recognizing this fact, Rev. Mr. Carr consents to the use of his name in order that other sufferers may know there is a cure called Pyramid Pills, which is sold by druggists everywhere for the low price of fifty cents a package, and which will bring about for every one afflicted with piles the same beneficial results as in his own case. Be careful to accept no substitutes, and remember that there is no remedy "just as good."

A little book describing the causes and cure of Piles is published by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and will be sent free for the asking. All sufferers are advised to write for it, as it contains valuable information on the subject of piles.

ALLEGED PENSION SWINDLERS ARRESTED

They Are Accused of Having Victimized a Number of Negroes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ELK HILL, VA., Feb. 20.—Levi C. Sullivan and Charles Carroll, alleged pension swindlers, who were arrested about 12 o'clock Saturday night by Special Officer Albert W. Boone, of the Pension Bureau at Washington, and Deputy Camden and others, at J. J. Maxey's, near Dillwyn, Buckingham county, had a hearing this morning before Judge W. J. Jenkins, and were turned over to Deputy United States Marshal Enright, to await the action of the Federal grand jury.

These men, it is charged, had been operating for several months in the counties of Stafford, Louisa, Hanover, Goochland, Goochland, Cumberland and Buckingham. When arrested they had a large number of pension blanks and other paraphernalia.

Their game, it is alleged, was to represent themselves as United States pension agents, and collect amounts ranging from $1 to $500 more-slaves, according to age, etc., for which they promised to send pension beginning June 10th.

The case was partially worked up by Attorney C. C. Fager, of Goochland, to whom a number of claims were reported. He notified the United States marshal at Norfolk, who put the government sleuths on their track.

One of the men wore the uniform of a United States army with brass buttons. In order to ingratiate themselves with the negroes they would spend the night at their houses, stating that their sympathy for the Inhuman way they were treated during slavery days, induced them to avoid their former masters and to minister only with those whom they were benefiting.

The two prisoners were brought to Richmond last night by United States Deputy Marshal W. J. Enright, and were taken to the city yesterday, and it was upon information lodged with him that the Special Examiner Roomer, of the Department, was wired for to look into the case.

Marshal Stuart is in the city to be present during the special term of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, which begins to-day. Mr. Stuart stated last night that he had not yet selected a hearing before a commissioner probably to-day. TIDEWATER ROAD TO GO TO NORFOLK

Senator Cromwell Declines to Retire From the Race.

SPANISH SHIP RESCUED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., Feb. 20.—Daniel Archer's case was continued in the Police Court this morning to March 2d, to await the result of the injuries received by little George Woodhouse, eight-year-old son of Police Officer Woodhouse, who was run down on the street by a wagon driven by the accused, a colored man. The wheels ran over the boy's body and the fear is that his abdomen and intestines are seriously injured.

The Spanish merchantine San Ignacio de Loyola, which stranded at Wachapreague, on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, ten days ago, has been floated by the Merritt and Chapman Wrecking Company's wrecking steamer Cetyl, is now being towed to Norfolk for repairs. She is expected to-morrow. The ice in the Delaware prevented the Spanish being towed north for repairs. The extent of the vessel's injuries are unknown.

Leutenant C. P. Shaw, of the navy, residing here, is still attempting to prevent the shooting of live birds here on the 23d. But the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has made a compromise, by which the sport will be allowed this time on the promise that it will not occur again.

In returning from New York, Judge D. Tucker Brooke, who is attorney for Philip McIntyre, the forger, who has been condemned to the penitentiary for a year, said he learned from McIntyre's New York attorneys that the $2,500 in cash and $1,000 in jewels McIntyre has been making overtures to bring the railway there. Norfolk has been approached with the proposition, that if she will offer $75,000 for a right of way through the suburbs of the city, the line will consider it the terminal of the system.

Senator B. H. H. Cromwell declines to withdraw from the race for the nomination for State senator to represent Norfolk county and Portsmouth. He received a delegation of Democrats, led by Chairman E. W. Fowler, of the county, on Saturday and heard the resolution asking him to withdraw in favor of a candidate from Portsmouth, according to the rotation which has existed between the city and the county for thirty years.

"I told the committee," said the senator this morning, "that there is no reason for my withdrawal from the race, after having announced myself for reelection, and that I do not propose to do so. You may say that I am in for a fight to a finish, and I believe that my services to the county will be of great value. I will not be deterred by one portion of it, mind you, but to the whole senatorial district, including Portsmouth and Norfolk, will be recognized. The old rule of rotation was an arrangement between the politicians. Such a rule is not necessary now, for the next senator will be selected at a primary, in which all the people will have an opportunity to participate and to express their opinion. I am perfectly willing to abide by the result of this primary. Let the old rule go for the first time, and let the new rule go for the first time.
